

—Col. J. P. Gibson of Bennettsville, has written a long communication to the Pee Dee Enquirer in reply to the charges of Mr. W. P. Pollock, that he ran for the legislature in 1880 on a Republican ticket. He denies the charges and says Mr. Pollock knew when he made it that it was not true. He does not deny that his name was on the Republican ticket in 1880, but claims that it was put there by Republican manipulators, without his knowledge or consent and that when he learned of it he would not serve if elected. He recalls how he rode for Hampton in 1876, and voted several times at different precincts, and how his name was put on the ticket to deceive Democratic voters. He says the name of Mr. Pollock was placed on the same ticket in a like manner. He goes on to say that the Democrats of Marlboro county elected him to the general assembly for six years after 1880, and charges that Mr. Pollock used the matter in the up-country where he, Col. Gibson, was not known as he is at home, merely for the purpose of injuring the candidacy of Governor Blease.

Who is W. F. Stevenson?
(Political Advertisement).
Come to the congressional campaign meeting at Yorkville, July 23, Fort Mill July 24, at night. McConnellville, July 24, 11 a. m. and he will tell you.

Mr. W. F. Stevenson, who is running for congress in this district, has been engaged in some great litigation. He was employed by the attorney general to assist in the prosecution of the dispensary grafters. We will refer to only one of the great trials of that series. This was held at Chester. Solicitor Henry was sick, but Mr. McLaren acted for him, with credit to himself and to the entire satisfaction of the attorney general. Mr. B. L. Abney was also for the state. The defense presented a brilliant array of counsel: Weston & Aycock, R. H. Welch, M. P. Howell, A. L. Gaston, John M. Wise and Nelson, Nelson & Gettys. Mr. W. O. Guy was foreman of the jury and J. M. Wilson, J. W. Taylor, John Estes, Alex. Fraser, F. M. Hough, W. H. Caldwell, J. N. Calvin and J. W. Sullivan were the jury.

It had been affirmed that they would not convict on the evidence of the co-partners. They should be enrolled on the roll of honor. No such plea controlled them. The trial lasted a week. The case was ably argued on all sides. Mr. Stevenson closed for the state and his argument has been more talked of than any other he has ever made. But merely because of the occasion and result Mr. Black was not the victor, and subsequently pardoned. The correspondent of the News and Courier said of the argument: "Attorney Stevenson made what has been commented on as probably the most powerful address heard in the court house here in years. Sharp, keen, incisive, crowding a world of facts into a small compass and marshaling them with wonderful generosity, adhering to the issue and exposing the guilt."

The Chester Reporter said: "There were some magnificent speeches in the graft case last week, but the public is agreed that it was the intensely forceful speech of Mr. Stevenson, perhaps, more than any other, that made the conviction of Black possible. Mr. Stevenson rehearsed the evidence item by item. There was not a piece or parcel missing. His irony went true to the mark and laid bare the rottenness."

Isn't that rottenness to be exposed in Washington? Do we want ability there?

The Last Eight

Of the last eight persons for whom I have written applications for policies in the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, five were unmarried and none were over 28 years of age. They all bought Mutual Benefit Insurance because they believed, and correctly, that there was none better, that the best time to insure was while they were young, in good health and could get it. Each of them applied for and were issued 20 pay life policies in the Mutual Benefit life insurance company. They are now all over 14, and have not been sick since they have done, and fully expect to, but are waiting for a "more convenient season" to start, but they never come, as it did not for others whom they could mention. They waited too long. If you are over 14, you are not too old. If you are not over 70, you are not too old.

Regarding the Monument

The Monument is the sole product of man which is expected to exist, without change or repair for all time—beyond the memory that we cherish in our hearts, which is only as long as the span of life. It may help to form a record, but it is erected as a tribute of love to those who have passed "to that bourne from whence no traveler ever returns." As such, let it be a thing of beauty, not dark and somber, but bright and cheerful; not typifying earthly sorrow, but symbolizing undying love. And as architecture is brought to us from the past by the tombs of the ancients, so let us put to them in our steps, some worthy expression of our conception of beauty.
